

Success for the launch of the F4 FIA Mygale in Australia

The life of Formula 4 FIA Mygale - July 2015

Excited audience and burning sun for the opening of the new CAMS Jayco Australian Formula 4 championship at Townsville raceway on 11th and 12th July 2015

Townsville raceway / Will Brown (AGI) Jordan Lloyd (BRM) Nick Rowe (AGI) leaders of the championship after the first 3 races

After UK last spring, Australia is now beginning its Formula 4 FIA season on the highly selective circuit in town of Townsville.

Jordan Lloyd is the big winner of the weekend with his BRM team. Young drivers have showed a lot of energy in fierce fights. See you on August 1 and 2 at Queensland Raceway for the 2nd round.

Success for the CAM'S and its president Andrew Papadopoulos who chose an original set up. CAM'S owns the cars that are leased to the teams to ensure a standard of preparation up to the FIA's expectation.

Next important step for Formula 4 FIA Mygale : Mexico, for the opening of the Formula 4 FIA NACAM championship which should run at the F1 Grand Prix on 31st October.

