On the 29th October, Hermanos Rodriguez circuit in Mexico hosted the F1 Mexican Grand Prix supported by two rounds of FIA F4 NACAM Championship which was a huge success. Alexis Carreño (Mexico) was the winner of the first race and Calvin Ming (Guyana) was the winner of the second race.

Emerson Fittipaldi former F1 World Champion was present at the event to support his grandson Enzo who is just 15 years old and proud to be competing in Formula 4.

Enzo drove in the Ginetta Junior Championship in Great Britain this year which has helped him to become acquainted with car racing and is now a competitive and aggressive driver. He finished sixth overall in the second race, a very good achievement for a young driver.
