MYGALE returns to French circuits

The life of Formula 4 - May 2018

After 15 years of absence, Mygale returns to his land: 19 Formulas 4 took the start of the first round of the French FFSA Circuit Championship in Nogaro for the Easter Cups, from March 29th to April 2nd. Seven nationalities competed and three different drivers in three races won, the Belgian Ugo de Wilde, the Monegasque Arthur Leclerc - brother of the Formula 1 driver Charles Leclerc - and the French Adam Eteki.

The second round took place from May 11 to 13 in the streets of Pau, the Brazilian Caio Collet won on the 1st and 3rd race, while Adam Eteki won the 2nd.

Meanwhile the F4 Mygale were also competing in two other European countries (F4 British Championship and Renault F4 Denmark Championship) and on three other continents: Oceania (CAM's Jayco Australian F4 Championship), America (F4 NACAM Championship in Mexico), and Asia (F4 South East Asia Championship, F4 Chinese Championship).
